

On January 25, 2018 at approximately 3:35 am the Worth County Sheriff's Office received a call from the Holiday Inn Hotel in Northwood about suspicious activity reported by a female. The deputy arrived on scene and recognized the female reporting the suspicious activity as Emily Buttshaw of Manly. Buttshaw was placed under arrest on a warrant out of Cerro Gordo County. After further investigation Buttshaw was charged with possession of a controlled substance-methamphetamine and possession of drug paraphernalia. Buttshaw was booked into the Worth County Jail. All subjects are presumed innocent until proved guilty in a court of law.
